TO meet the ever-increasing demand for a reliable Address Book, the present issue is given to the public, and we trust its carefully compiled contents will fully meet the emergency, and be a useful and enduring benefit to those who have occasion to consult its pages.

For social and business purposes it occupies a unique and special field.

Society people will find the book especially adapted for their requirements, inasmuch as it not only enumerates all those identified with the social world, but includes the officers of the clubs, social, religious, literary, scientific, and charitable institutions with which they are connected.

In a business way, for sending out announcements, circulars, etc., designed to cover a particular locality or street, it is especially to be commended, and users will readily appreciate its merits and advantages.

As an evidence of its advertising usefulness, we have only to direct attention to the representative, well-known and reliable firms whose attractive advertising literature forms a very gratifying endorsement, an index of which will be found in the following pages.

Copies may be obtained of Otto Ulbrich, 386 Main Street, Peter Paul & Son, 136 North Pearl Street, Henry B. Brown Co., 496 Main Street, H. H. Otis & Sons, 650 Main Street.
